Burlington, ON, March 13, 2006 – Questica Inc. Chairman and Handling Specialty President, Dennis Parass to Receive Ontario Global Traders Award

Dennis Parass, Chairman of Questica Inc. and President of Handling Specialty will be honored as an Ontario Global Traders Award Recipient for the Central Region on Thursday, April 6 at the Holiday Inn Hotel in Barrie, ON.

Under Dennis Parass' guidance, Handling Specialty has gained the reputation of a world-class manufacturer of material handling products and a true advocate of global trade. Dennis recently participated in a trade mission to Japan and Korea to raise the profile of Niagara's manufacturing capacity and autoparts suppliers. Dennis serves as Director at large for the Material Handling Industry of America, Director of Walker Industries and Chairman of Questica. As a Director of the Niagara Economic Development Corporation, he frequently mentors SMEs and appears as a guest speaker on exporting. Dennis is a founding member of the board of directors for the Niagara Enterprise Agency and has served for 15 years on the national board of Young Life, a non-denominational charitable organization.

The Ontario Global Traders Awards are the province's premier export recognition program. First introduced in 1998, the Awards recognize the outstanding export achievements of the most innovative and successful small and medium-sized enterprises, leaders and students in Ontario. The Awards are coordinated by Ontario Exports Inc., the Government of Ontario's export development agency with support from their partners in trade.

"We are very proud to have such a distinguished and honored business professional as Chairman of our company. Questica has greatly benefited from the knowledge Dennis brings with his many years of business experience" says Questica's president, TJ Parass.
